

Parent and Student Rights under Section 504
(34 CFR,104.36)
Notice

The following is a description of some student and parent rights under Section 504 and other federal laws. The intent of the law is to keep you fully informed concerning decisions about your child and to inform you of your rights if you disagree with any of these decisions.

- Have your child take part in and receive benefits from public education programs without discrimination based on a disability.
- Receive notice with respect to identification, evaluation, program, or placement of your child.
- Have your child receive a free appropriate public education. This includes the right to be educated with other students to the maximum extent appropriate. It also includes the right to have the school make reasonable accommodations to allow your child an equal opportunity to participate in school and school-related activities.
- Have your child educated in facilities and receive services comparable to those provided for students without disabilities.
- Have evaluation, educational, and placement decisions made based upon a variety of information sources and by individuals who know the student, disability, evaluation data, and placement options.
- Give your child an equal opportunity to participate in nonacademic and extracurricular activities offered by the school.
- Examine all relevant records relating to decisions regarding your child's identification, evaluation, educational program, and placement.
- File a local grievance with your school if you feel your child is being discriminated against because of their disability.
- Request a due process hearing to help resolve issues with the school.
- File a formal complaint with the regional Office for Civil Rights. The office is part of the U.S. Department of Education. The regional office is located at 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20202-1100
