

Congratulations Class of 2019

As the members of the Class of 2019 prepare to graduate and enter the next exciting phase of their lives, I have one last piece of advice for them. Challenge yourself to become leaders who have a positive impact on the world around you. Whether you lead teams in industry or a fight against social injustices or environmental issues, we need you. We need you to make positive changes to ensure a brighter tomorrow. We need you to get back up when people and social norms knock you down time and time again. We need you to recognize that leadership is frustrating and often lonely, but that you do it anyway because of the potential positive impact that you could have on the world around you. But as you lead, lead with passion, empathy and a high moral compass. Finally, you must remember that you are leading people. And people need to be heard, validated and respected. After all, a leader without any followers is just a person taking a walk.

Congratulations Class of 2019! It's time to make your mark.

BEING POSITIVE IN A NEGATIVE
SITUATION IS NOT NAIVE. IT'S LEADERSHIP.

Read it. Think about it. Decide what to do with it. Make a difference!
